

University of California, Merced Graduate Division Deadline: November 18, 2015

Winter 2016 Boot Camp Application

Submit application to graddiv@ucmerced.edu

Applicant Information
Full Name:		Student ID:
Last	First	M.I.
Phone:	Email:
Graduate Group:	Degree (Objective:
I am applying to attend (check one):
Dissertation Writing Boot Cam Students in stage 1 are beginnir	p: Stage 1 (January 11-15) ng to write the dissertation, thesis,	or proposal	YES NO
Dissertation Writing Boot Cam Students in stage 2 have alread (e.g. a third or more of the lii	YES NO
Will you be available for all dates of t	he boot camp outlined above?		YES NO
List your work/progress on your resisteps to degree completion.
2. What are the obstacles you have e	encountered in your writing thus t	far?

3. What a	re your expectations f	or your Boot Camp ex	perience? What do y	ou want to learn? What	do you hope to accomp			. ,
_		lee	ues/Obstacles
	Please indic			with each of the follow	ina
I need h	elp with/information	Very Much	Somewhat	Not Much	Not at All about de	ealing with: and meeting	, goals/de
Overcon	ning procrastination
Getting f	feedback from my
Overcon	ning perfectionistic and overcoming writer's l
Writing
Revising	g and editing skills
Staying	motivated
	and sticking to a e for writing
	a writing support
Literatur	e Review
Citation	Formating
Others:	Please list and rate
		Disclai	mer and Signatuı	e ·
l certify ti Boot Car				wing conditions of succ	cessful participation i
1. A	Attendance is manda	tory for all days of Bo	oot Camp.
2. F	Participation in the introduction and orientation meetings is required.
3. 7	The Graduate Division will provide breakfast, lunch, and refreshments throughout the day.
	Participants must plan on bringing a laptop, and any books, articles, and other materials needed for productive writing.
Signature	Signature: Date:					