

UC Merced Graduate Advisor-Advisee Conflict Management

Office of Student Rights & Responsibilities
UC Merced Law Clinic
Student Accessibility Services
Queer Ally Program LGBTIQ
Dean of Students

Title IX - Office for the Prevention of Harassment and Discrimination
Complaints of discrimination and harassment on the basis of sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, orientation.
<http://dsvp.ucmerced.edu/>

Campus Advocacy, Resources & Education
CARE is available to provide CONFIDENTIAL support for those affected by sexual violence, dating/domestic violence and stalking.
<https://care.ucmerced.edu>

Office of the Ombuds
The campus Ombuds is a CONFIDENTIAL and informal resource. The Ombuds provides advice and dispute resolution services to all students, faculty, and staff.
<https://ombuds.ucmerced.edu/>

Seek counsel from the School Dean or Graduate Dean

Bring concerns to your Advisory Committee, Graduate Group Chair, and/or Department Chair

Counseling & Psychological Services
CAPS is available for CONFIDENTIAL counseling for grads from all backgrounds, including psychiatric services, group counseling, and mental health services.
<https://counseling.ucmerced.edu/>

Communicate with advisor to work through issues. Seek advice from mentors and peers.

Graduate Academic Counselor
Support for all students who need help with graduate school, including professional conflicts with faculty, students, or staff. Counselor can help mediate discussions or coach students on handling and resolving conflicts.
<https://graduatedivision.ucmerced.edu/counseling/>

Graduate Support Staff
Support for graduate students that is specialized to departments and schools. Staff are assigned to specific graduate groups and they can help with departmental and school issues. They can also help with employment processing, course logistics, travel, and instructional and resource needs.

