

UC Merced Faculty / Graduate Student Conflict Management

FIRST:
If a conflict starts to take shape, communicate with the Graduate Student or Faculty Member to discuss and possibly resolve issues & concerns

Graduate Academic Counselor
The Counselor helps students navigate academic policies, procedures, challenges, and conflicts

Faculty Relations Liaison
The Liaison helps faculty navigate academic policies, procedures, challenges, and conflicts

Faculty and Graduate Students may seek further informal counsel from the Dept or Grad Chairs.
Chairs may work with the School Dean or Graduate Dean as needed

If informal processes are not successful, Graduate Students may seek guidance from the Graduate Dean; Faculty may seek guidance from the Associate Vice Provost for the Faculty

Campus Advocacy, Resources & Education
CARE is available to provide CONFIDENTIAL support for those affected by sexual violence, dating/domestic violence and stalking.

Counseling & Psychological Services
CAPS is available for CONFIDENTIAL counseling, including psychiatric services, group counseling, and mental health services.

Office of the Ombuds
The campus Ombuds is a CONFIDENTIAL and informal resource. The Ombuds provides consultation and dispute resolution services to all students, faculty, and staff.

Office for the Prevention of Harassment & Discrimination
Investigates Title IX complaints of discrimination and harassment

Office of Student Rights & Responsibilities
Employee & Labor Relations
Student Accessibility Services
Queer Ally Program LGBTIQ
Dean of Students
UC Merced Law Clinic